

Federal Ministry
for Economic Affairs and Energy

Fit for Partnership with Germany

Group Industry 4.0 - Digitalization

(online cooperation session with Germany, Follow Up in Germany)

Participants should

- have an intention to introduce innovative German developments based on the ideas and technologies of Industry 4.0 at their enterprises
- or
- have their own relevant developments that may be of interest to German partners.

Priority areas:

- IT-products
- Digitalization of enterprises and production (Digital factory, Smart Manufacturing)
- Industrial and service robotization, industrial automation
- Additive manufacturing (3D printing)
- New materials
- Mass customization
- Unmanned vehicles - cars, loaders, aircraft, their use, including in industry and agriculture
- Smart farming
- Smart energy efficiency, energy storage and transmission technologies
- Artificial Intelligence
- Internet of things and services
- Communication and connections
- Big Data
- Blockchain
- Work with information

Participants can represent any link in the value chain:

- Research and development
- Production
- Logistics
- Services
- Marketing and sales

Participants can represent both mature companies and advanced start-ups that are at the stages of growth / expansion and are interested in scaling a business.

More information you can find

- On the website of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of the Republic of Moldova:
<https://training.chamber.md/programul-de-pregatire-si-perfectionare-a-managerilor-de-la-intreprinderile-din-diferite-sectoare-ale-economiei-republicii-moldova/>
- On the website of INVENT Moldova (alumni association in Moldova):
<http://www.invent.md/ru>
- On Facebook
<https://www.facebook.com/MPEasternEurope/>

Reference:

The program “Fit for Partnership with Germany” is an element of the foreign economic policy of Germany and Moldova.

The program is implemented by the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of the Republic of Moldova and the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH on behalf of the Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Energy within the framework of bilateral cooperation between the Government of Moldova and the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany.